Report of the Board of Trustees

The Board of Trustees is pleased to present their annual report and audited financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2008. The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the accounting policies set out on pages 11 and 12 and comply with the Companies Act 1985 and the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities 2005. The reference and administrative details on page 1 form part of this report.

Structure, Governance and Management

The Foundation is constituted as a company limited by guarantee and was registered as a Charity on 10 October 2003. The Charity is administered by a board of 14 members which meets a minimum of four times a year. An Executive/Operational Director who is not a trustee is appointed by the board to manage the day-to-day operations of the Charity.

Recruitment and induction of trustees

Suitable candidates are selected by the existing trustees and invited to become trustees. New trustees are inducted into the working of the charity.

Objects of the Charity are:

- The promotion of any charitable purposes for the benefit of the community in the county of Cornwall and the Isles of Scilly and in particular the advancement of education, the protection of good health, both mental and physical and the relief of poverty and sickness.
- Other exclusively charitable purposes in the United Kingdom and elsewhere which are in the opinion of the trustees beneficial to the community including those in the area of benefit.

Investment powers and policy

Under the Memorandum and Articles of Association, the Charity has the power to make any investments which the trustees see fit. The trustees regularly review internal financial information to ensure their financial position is such that it is adequate to provide sufficient resources to perform the Charity's objects in all types of conditions and to act accordingly. The Trustees have reflected on the need to balance risk and return on its reserves and have decided to maintain the majority of its investments in interest bearing accounts.

Grant making policy

The Charity considers applications for funding support on a regular basis. Applications are reviewed against specific criteria and the amount granted is based on available funds.

Reserves policy

It is the trustees' view that it is prudent to accumulate free reserves to be able to cover one year's anticipated administration costs (which are approximately £145,000) to sustain its operations, when income generating activities may temporarily cease. The trustees have initially set aside a substantial proportion of the free reserves as a development fund for the early years building of the Foundation.

Risk assessment

The trustees have assessed the major risks to which the charity is exposed, as identified by the trustees, and have established systems to mitigate those risks. This is an ongoing procedure and is subject to regular review.

Cornwall Community Foundation

Financial review

The total incoming resources for the year were £1,207,918. Total outgoing resources were £712,599, giving net incoming resources of £495,319. The net movement in funds for the year was £452,599 after other recognised investment losses of £42,720.

Auditors

A resolution proposing that Robinson Reed Layton be reappointed as auditors' will be submitted to the Annual General Meeting.

Statement of trustees' responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

Charity law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under that law the trustees have elected to prepare the financial statements in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice (United Kingdom Accounting Standards and applicable law). The financial statements are required by law to give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the surplus or deficit of the charity for that period. In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the charity and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with applicable law. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and for taking reasonable steps to prevent and detect fraud and other irregularities.

Statement of disclosure to auditor

So far as the directors are aware, there is no relevant audit information of which the company's auditors are unaware. Additionally, the directors have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken as directors in order to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the company's auditors are aware of that information.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provision of part VII of the Companies Act 1985 relating to small companies.

Chairman's Review of activities and future developments

We have set ourselves two Strategic objectives over the last year. First, we had to build the Foundation's Endowment to ensure that there was a long term future with the financial security that would bring. Secondly, we needed to replace the lost revenue from the ending of the Government's Local Network Fund scheme. This had been our largest source of income.

With these in mind, our annual report shows commendable work in progress. The Endowment Fund at the end of the year stood at £400,284, compared with £118,836 at the end of 2007. Aside from some substantial donations, we have also benefited from the Government's offer to match funds that are raised for Endowment. This programme only started some four months before the end of the year, so there remains considerable opportunity to build further on this.

Our second objective to replace LNF has resulted in several new sources of income. Unrestricted funds at the end of the year stood at £626,069, compared with £442,163 at the end of 2007. These figures disguise considerable movement during the course of the year, as much of these funds operate on a flow-through basis, meaning that there is a steady flow of incoming funds that goes out to make up the grants that we are there to administer. Within this, new funds include the Caradon Area Community Fund, the Cornwall 100, and Grassroots. We have also established Acorn funds designed for donors to start a segregated fund on behalf of their family or their company. There remains much work to do, in order to replace LNF fully, but we are at least ahead of our target in bringing in new funding.

The Foundation had its fifth birthday in 2008. The levels of interest and the funds that are flowing into Endowment or into specific grant-making programmes, suggest that five years of base-building through the Cornish communities are beginning to pay dividends. The Cornwall 100 scheme for instance, established in February 2008, has been successful in attracting the Cornish business sector by setting up a 'club' of local firms who have their own grants panel, and is thus able to determine how their charitable funds should be distributed.

In 2008 we distributed £535,172 of grants throughout the community. These were mostly of a small scale, meaning hundreds rather than thousands of pounds going to local community groups. Sometimes these grants have helped to ensure the survival of a facility that may be used by young or older people in a community. In other cases, the grants are going to such areas as supporting young carers, or refuges for women suffering from domestic violence. Frequently buildings or vehicles used to help people in difficult situations need expensive upgrading to comply with new regulations on safety or access. Funding has gone to local sports, such as gig rowing or canoeing. Without these facilities, young people in the local communities would have bleaker lives.

We do not know how long our country will remain in recession, but the downturn has in many areas increased the amount of demand for grants, often as other sources of funding have dried up. Cornwall may not have hit the high spots that other parts of the country did in the boom years, but as the downturn progresses, there is no doubt that local incomes are falling, unemployment is on the increase, and once hidden areas of distress become more apparent. This is visible to us, from the rise in the numbers of applications for grants in some cases from community organisations that were previously self sufficient.

Our Launceston based staff, energetically led by Linda Whittaker, have worked tirelessly to deal with the transitions during a difficult year. Our bread and butter is small grants, but their management is often time consuming in the detail that has to be dealt with. Quite correctly, compliance needs have increased so that there can be assurance that funds granted have been spent appropriately. It has been difficult to avoid increasing our overheads in order to deal with this.

Chairman's Review of activities and future developments (continued)

Two of our Trustees left us in 2008. Andrew Flint, our retiring Treasurer, went well beyond the call of duty in ensuring that our financial processes were fit for purpose, and that the Board had credible management accounts to work with. Bishop Bill retired from the diocese, and then the County during the year. He has brought charisma and understanding to community life in Cornwall, and he was an admirable Trustee of the Foundation, certainly never afraid to speak his mind. I thank them both on behalf of the Foundation, they will be greatly missed.

At the early stage 2009 appears to have started well with more funds flowing into the Foundation's Endowment, and new flow through fund opportunities being established. However we take nothing for granted especially in economic circumstances as difficult as they now are. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of our supporters, our volunteers, our very hard-working staff, and my fellow Trustees. We are for certain going in the right direction but it will never be easy.

Independent auditors' report to the Members of Cornwall Community Foundation

We have audited the financial statements of Cornwall Community Foundation for the year ended 31 December 2008 on pages 8 to 25. These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention and the accounting policies set out herein.

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Section 235 of the Companies Act 1985. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditor's report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's Members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and auditors

The trustees' responsibilities for preparing the Trustees' Report and financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice) are set out in the Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities on page 3.

Our responsibility is to audit the financial statements in accordance with relevant legal and regulatory requirements and International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland).

We report to you our opinion as to whether the financial statements give a true and fair view and are properly prepared in accordance with the Companies Act 1985. We also report to you if, in our opinion, the trustees' report is not consistent with the financial statements.

In addition we report to you if the charitable company has not kept proper accounting records, if we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit, or if information specified by law regarding trustees' remuneration and transactions with the charitable company is not disclosed.

We are not required to consider whether the statement in the Trustees' Report concerning the major risks to which the charitable company is exposed covers all existing risks and controls, or to form an opinion on the effectiveness of the charitable company's risk management and control procedures.

We read other information contained in the Report of the Board of Trustees and consider whether it is consistent with the audited financial statements. We consider the implications for our report if we become aware of any apparent misstatements or material inconsistencies with the financial statements. Our responsibilities do not extend to any other information.

Basis of opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) issued by the Auditing Practices Board. An audit includes examination, on a test basis, of evidence relevant to the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. It also includes an assessment of the significant estimates and judgements made by the trustees in the preparation of the financial statements, and of whether the accounting policies are appropriate to the charitable company's circumstances, consistently applied and adequately disclosed.

We planned and performed our audit so as to obtain all the information and explanations which we considered necessary in order to provide us with sufficient evidence to give reasonable assurance that the financial statements are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or other irregularity or error. In forming our opinion we also evaluated the overall adequacy of the presentation of information in the financial statements.

Notes

(forming part of the financial statements)

1 Constitution

The company was incorporated under the Companies Act 1985 as a company limited by guarantee and not having a share capital. In the event of the company being wound up each member is liable to contribute a sum not exceeding £1 towards the debts and liabilities of the company and the costs, charges and expenses of winding up. There were 14 members at 31 December 2008 (2007: 14).

2 Accounting policies

2.1 Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, modified for the valuation of investments, in accordance with applicable accounting standards, and follow the recommendations in Statement of Recommended Practice: "Accounting and Reporting by Charities" (SORP 2005) issued in March 2005.

The company is exempt from the requirement of financial reporting standard No1 to prepare a cash flow statement on the grounds of its size.

2.2 Incoming resources

Incoming resources including grants receivable are accounted for in the period in which the company is entitled to receipt.

2.3 Bequests and legacies

A legacy or bequest is recognised in the financial statements when the certainty of receipt and the amount receivable has been established.

2.4 Resources expended

Expenditure is included on an accruals basis. The irrecoverable element of VAT is included with the item of expense to which it relates.

Certain expenditure is directly attributable to specific activities and has been included in those cost categories. Other costs, which are attributable to more than one activity, are apportioned across cost categories on the basis of an estimate of the proportion of time spent by staff on those activities.

Grants payable are charged in the period when the offer is conveyed to the recipient except in those cases where the offer is conditional, such grants being recognised as expenditure when the conditions attaching are fulfilled. Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the period end are noted as a commitment, but not accrued as expenditure.

2.5 Unrestricted and designated funds

These funds have been made available to the trustees without specific conditions. The use of unrestricted funds is entirely at the discretion of the Trustees. Designated funds are unrestricted funds earmarked by the trustees for particular purposes.

2.6 Restricted funds

These funds are made available to the trustees with specific conditions imposed by the donors as to the nature of their use.

2.7 Endowment funds

These include a permanent endowment fund which is to be held permanently and only the income from it is used for charitable activities. These also include expendable endowment funds which are primarily held to provide income but the trustees also have the option to spend the fund capital on charitable activities.

2.8 Transfers

Transfers are made when appropriate from a specific fund to recover costs incurred not charged directly to that fund.

Cornwall Community Foundation

2.9 Taxation

The company is a registered charity under the Charities Act 1993 and as such is exempt from taxation on its income and capital gains.

2.10 Pensions

The charity operates a defined contribution pension scheme. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the charity in an independently administered fund. The pension costs charged in the financial statements represent the contributions payable by the company during the year in accordance with FRS17.

2.11 Fixed asset investments

Investments are stated in the financial statements at market value. Unrealised gains on investments are calculated by reference to the difference between market values from one year to the next. Realised gains or losses are calculated by reference to the difference between proceeds of sale and the carrying value of the investment at the previous year end.
